

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Share Margin Financing account wef 1 July 2021

Effective 1 July 2021, market value updates for the underlying shares will cease following from the notice given on discontinuation of Share Margin Financing (“SMF”) facility in 2020. The last market value of the underlying shares reflected on Citibank Online or your banking statement(s) would be as at 30 June 2021.

This is also a reminder to transfer out your outstanding shares or to close your SMF account, if you have not done so.

Should you have further enquiries or require further assistance including transferring of any outstanding share(s) to your designated brokerage account or require assistance to close your SMF account, please reach out to your Relationship Manager or connect with us through CitiPhone at +603 2383 0000.
